T R A V E L

With today's busy schedules, working in some quality family time can seem like a feat fit for a super hero. Equally as challenging is the task of planning a vacation suitable for the multi-generational members of your clan. But as more and more families are traveling with young children, yet still seeking the sublime experiences they've grown accustomed to, hotels are taking notice and adding much in the way of added amenities and activities suited to all activity and interest levels. Following is but a taste of some Harper-recommended family-friendly vacation options spanning the globe from Tennessee and New Mexico to Africa, Italy and British Columbia. Take advantage of these and more Harper member privileges, as well as some sensational and short-term Special Offers, by contacting the Andrew Harper Travel Office at 1.800.375.4685 or reservations@AndrewHarper.com.
